Pro Tips:

- Write down your username and password and save it in your browser if you can.
- Use the same login credentials for Scoutbook
- Do this training on a desktop computer if possible. Mobile devices may distort resolution or touch areas
- Create a file on your CPU for Scouting documents. You'll have the opportunity to download a lot of material that will be helpful later

For Scoutmasters and Assistants to complete their training, they must participate in an overnight in-person training called Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills (IOLS).

This course is offered twice a year by the South Texas Council at our two flagship campsites—Camp Huisache and Camp Karankawa.

Check the Council Calendar for availability and information.

...to do my best to do my duty...

Every Scout deserves a fully trained leader.

As leaders we have a duty to be fully trained and provide the best possible experience to the youths of America.

Once you've completed the basic training requirements outlined above, there are other opportunities that will help you measure your progress and achievement.

WOOD BADGE

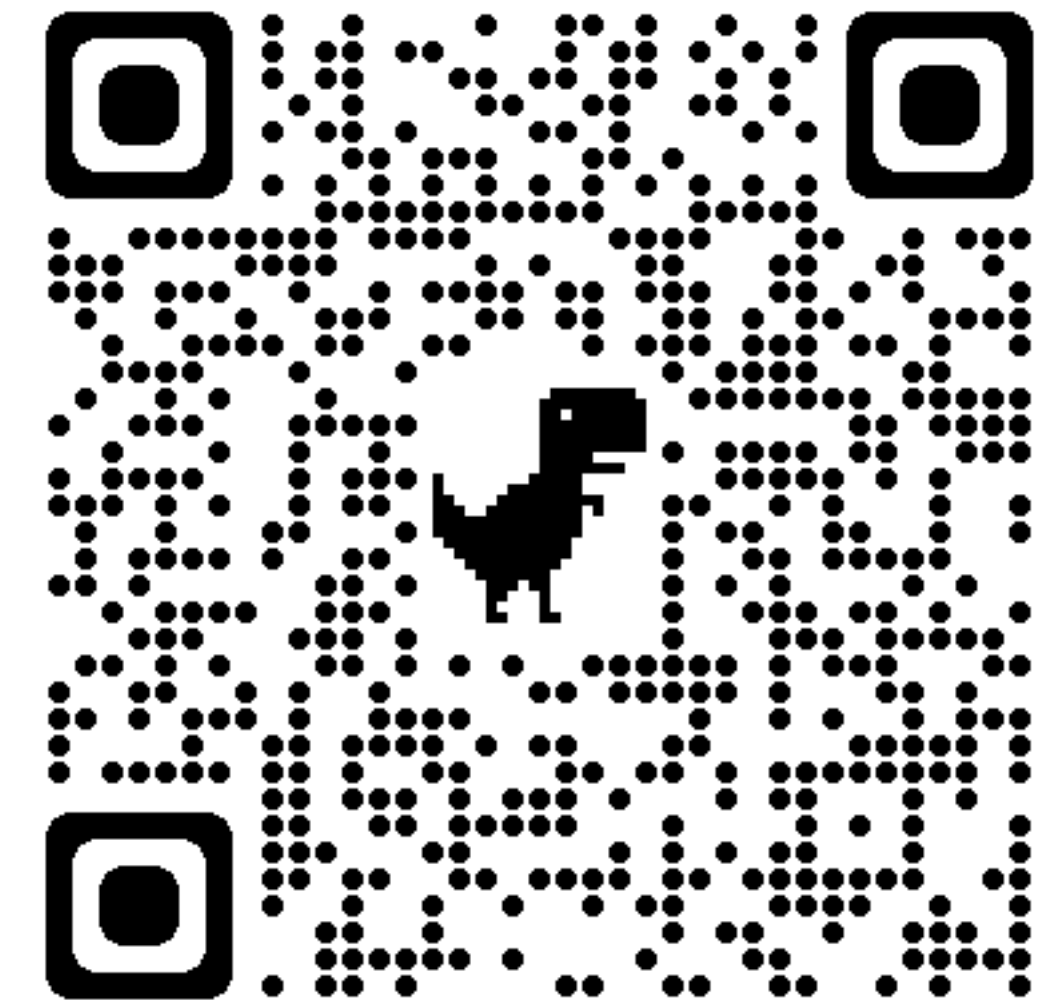

The Wood Badge is the signature training program for all Scout leaders. The South Texas Council offers Wood Badge training every 18 months. Check the Council Calendar for availability

This training takes place over two weekend events, will enhance training, and deepen your understanding. Most importantly, by the time you earn your Wood Badge, your unit will have improved as a result!

Scouter's Training Key

This recognition is earned by Scouters that have completed a higher level of training, met performance standards, and fulfilled tenure requirements.
